International Accountability Mechanisms for Myanmar At a Glance

International Independent Fact-Finding Mission on Myanmar (FFM)

- Monitored the human rights situation in Myanmar at the UN.
- Conducted investigations and documented human rights violations.

Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar (IMIM)

- Performed investigations into human rights abuses in Myanmar.
- Collected and analyzed evidence of violations.

International Criminal Court (ICC)

- Investigates and prosecutes individuals for genocide, war crimes, and crimes against humanity.
- Issues arrest warrants for individuals believed to be involved in serious crimes.

International Court of Justice (ICJ)

- Adjudicates disputes between states.
- Interprets international law concerning open questions.

Universal Jurisdiction (UJ)

- Allows states to prosecute individuals for serious crimes regardless of where they occurred.
- Provides a framework for the investigation and prosecution of crimes.